

CONTENTS

|   | Page      |
|---|------------------|
| ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS   | i                |
| Chapter 1: Introduction: The Study of Agrarian Transformations in Palestine                         | 1                |
| PART I: THE SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION OF PALESTINE (1850-1980)                                   | 23               |
| Chapter 2: An Agrarian Society Factionalized  | 27               |
| Chapter 3: An Agrarian Society Dislocated   | 50               |
| Chapter 4: The West Bank: Structural Change Under Israeli Rule (1967-1982)                          | 74               |
| PART II: THE MECHANISMS OF AGRARIAN TRANSITION   | 118              |
| Chapter 5: The Persistence of Sharetenancy in the Palestinian Agrarian Economy                      | 132              |
| Chapter 6: Wage Labour, Landlessness and Migration as Factors in Rural Transformation               | 169 Women |
| Chapter 7: The Peasant Household and Wage Labour in Israel  | 193              |
| PART III: VILLAGE CASE STUDIES   | 212              |
| Chapter 8: De-peasantisation I: The Case of Ras el-Tin  | 222              |
| Chapter 9: De-peasantisation II: The Case of Natufa   | 250              |
| Chapter 10: Re-peasantisation: Refugees, Sharecroppers, and Absentee Landlords in the Jordan Valley | 273              |
| Chapter 11: Re-peasantisation and Agricultural Technology: The Case of Zbeidat                      | 312              |
| Chapter 12: The Diffusion of Agricultural Technology: A New Subjugation for Palestinian Peasants?   | 347 pe    |
| Chapter 13: Conclusions: The Demise or Reformulation of a Peasant Society?                          | 378              |